

The Land of Bungo Ono

Learn about the Geological History of the City

The land of present-day Bungo Ono is made up of a variety of rocks and geological formations that were there long before Aso volcano erupted. By researching how and when the different types of rocks were formed, you can learn about the history of the geology of Bungo Ono.

ZONE 2 features exhibits of the rocks and fossils that are found throughout Bungo Ono City.

